

Celebrating Latine Heritage!

Latine heritage month is celebrated from September 15 – October 15.

During this time, many Latin American countries celebrate their independence, and the US celebrates their diverse cultures, histories, and resilience. The US Census estimates that nearly 19.5% of the US population is of Hispanic or Latine origin (U.S. Census Bureau, 2023).

These books highlight Latine history, power, and struggle through themes like identity, healing, and resistance.
